1           THE COURT. ... for yourself if, for some 2 reason, Mr. Justice wants to speak. But at this 3 point, I think it's fine for you to just have it.

4           MR. GORENCE: Okay, Your Honor. And I can 5 slide it over. And so are we going to address the 6 Court seated or do you want us at the podium or 7 what do you want?

8           THE COURT: Remain seated at this point.
9 We're here for a -- we're here for a detention 10 hearing, and the government filed a motion
11 yesterday. I've reviewed the motion. Are you 12 ready to proceed with witnesses?

13          MR. STANFORD: Yes, Your Honor. I have 14 Special Agent Nate Kempton from the Alcohol,
15 Tobacco & Firearms Agency here. I also have a 16 witness I'd like to have appear telephonically.
17 He's in quarantine, as are most of the people that 18 I would normally call in this hearing, but mostly 19 we'll be proceeding by proffer for reasons that are 20 probably obvious to the Court.

21          THE COURT: All right. Well, if you have -- 22 if the agent who is here in court is planning to 23 testify and he's your first witness, then we'll 24 have him start and then you can give us the phone 25 number for whoever it is that's going to be

1 appearing by phone and we can dial them in.

2 MR. GORENCE: Your Honor, I just received
3 the government's motion along with the lengthy 4 attachments, and I haven't even gone through it all
5 with my client. So, pursuant to 3142 -- and I
6 don't have the statute in front of me -- I'm 7 entitled to a three-day continuance. I'm not 8 prepared remotely with regard to all of this 9 information, much less has it even been read to my 10 client. But I know his mother just traveled in 11 from Melbourne, Florida, and she wants to see these 12 proceedings.

13 THE COURT: She traveled in? Was she 14 screened at the door and allowed in? I thought we 15 weren't letting people in the court who --

16 MR. GORENCE: I think it's outside the 17 country --

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. GORENCE: -- but I don't know.

20 THE COURT: Well, she was presumably 21 screened and is here.

22 MR. GORENCE: Presumably. She may have 23 (inaudible).

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. GORENCE: Having said that, I'm asking,

1 as the statute provides, we get up to three days.
2 I believe one day would be sufficient. I don't 3 know when Mr. Justice will be returned to Cibola.
4 I wanted him to be back tomorrow, but I need a 5 couple of hours, minimally, to go over this, and 6 that's what -- I mean, otherwise, it's not much of 7 a hearing if I can't meaningfully participate
8 because I haven't even gone through these exhibits, 9 much less has Mr. Justice ever seen them.

10           And so, pursuant to the statute, I would ask 11 for a continuance of, minimally, one day -- two 12 days would be preferable -- so that we can prepare.

13           THE COURT: All right. Well, why is it that 14 we can't prepare with the witnesses who are present
15 and you cross-examine? We can certainly -- I mean, 16 there are voluminous exhibits, but a lot of these 17 exhibits are photographs.

18           MR. GORENCE: Well, I haven't -- oh, sorry.

19           THE COURT: So I would think that, at a 20 minimum, we could start this proceeding with the 21 witnesses who are present. I can give you an 22 opportunity -- I mean, the majority of this motion 23 is the exhibits. One of the exhibits is this 24 lengthy manifest. I'm not sure if your witness is 25 planning to testify extensively about the exhibit

1 entitled The Great Replacement, but there are 2 also -- I mean, a lot of this is just photographs.

3 So what I would suggest is that you take a
4 few minutes to look at it. Why -- why didn't you
5 get it last night? It didn't -- wasn't it made 6 available to you by CMCF?

7 MR. GORENCE: Yeah, I saw it this morning, 8 Your Honor. I work at the house. I didn't look at 9 it. I did see it this morning. I've read it. I 10 haven't gone over it yet with Mr. Justice.
11 Photographs, but these photographs on are the basis 12 of the detention. We have -- the dynamic, Your 13 Honor, is that he's a U.S. citizen without any 14 criminal history. He has a security clearance
15 doing very sensitive work at Kirtland Air Force 16 Base. Ordinarily, this would be a situation that I 17 believe conditions of release would be set.

18 The difference is that they're alleging by 19 virtue of these photographs and other materials
20 contained within them that he is, in essence, a 21 want-to-be domestic terrorist. Minimally -- again, 22 I can't cross-examine anybody today. My client 23 hasn't even read it, so reading it to him and going 24 through these one at a time.

25 So I mean, again, the statute provides that

1 I get an automatic right of a continuance of up to 2 three days to prepare, but -- if the government
3 wants to start and we do the cross-examination 4 tomorrow, but I can't do it without talking to my 5 client, what these mean, what each one is, how 6 they're on his phone.

7 I understand these are trying circumstances, 8 but as the Court is aware, if we go through with 9 this hearing and I want to review that on appeal, I 10 have to have some new argument or something that 11 wasn't raised below. So that's the standard that, 12 if we go forward, I have to be prepared and the 13 statute gives me that opportunity.

14 Now, I know that's some inconvenience to 15 bring him back from Cibola.

16 THE COURT: Well, it's not just an 17 inconvenience. It's every time he's brought back 18 into the courthouse, he has contact with people, 19 and he goes back and potentially -- if he has been 20 exposed, now he's potentially exposing an entire 21 facility.

22 So we're going to -- let me hear from the 23 government in a minute, but my suggestion is that 24 we can postpone this for half an hour so that you 25 can review the motion and the exhibits with your

1 client, and then we will at least begin the 2 proceeding with the witnesses we have available and 3 figure out how to go from there. Because it may be 4 that, even if we continue the hearing to tomorrow, 5 we start it today, we continue it to tomorrow or 6 Friday or potentially Monday -- I mean, you have 7 the opportunity as the defense to get five days, if 8 that's what you wish, under the statute. The 9 government can request three days, but the 10 defendant can have up to a five-day continuance.
11 But under the circumstances, because we have 12 witnesses and because we're trying to avoid people 13 being exposed to each other and not bringing this 14 into the facilities, since we have everyone here
15 I'd like to at least see if we can get this started 16 today.

17 MR. GORENCE: I understand, Your Honor. And 18 so what I need to do is, if we could go back -- 19 because I don't want to do this here because 20 there's government individuals, so I can't really 21 have a -- I'm sure that Mr. Stanford and the agent 22 would leave, but there's still marshals and other 23 people. So I'd like to go back and talk 24 downstairs.

25 Was this filed yesterday afternoon? Because

1 if it was, I didn't get this notice of this, and 2 I'm working at the house. So I gave personal 3 e-mails but it came into my office e-mail, and it 4 doesn't automatically upload to my cell phone. And 5 my office is now reduced staff. So if it didn't 6 come to me personally, which is why I send things 7 off my personal phone, but it went into the office, 8 the office e-mail, so that's why I didn't receive 9 it.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. GORENCE: And I'll try in a half an 12 hour, but if I'm not ready to cross-examine, I am 13 going to ask -- and understand it may be -- and I 14 don't know if they do it telephonically from 15 Cibola, but I can see that, if I'm not prepared and 16 we go forward, my only revenue then is -- or I 17 should say avenue is an appeal. I have to have new 18 evidence that, you know, could have and should have 19 been raised here below because that's the legal 20 standard, and there's a lot of -- each one of 21 these, quote, photographs has to -- where did it 22 come from, how is it on your phone, do you recall 23 it on your phone, what was the mechanism.

24 So, I mean, the Court can say they're just 25 pictures, but it's the essence of what's going on

1 with regard to the detention. So I will do my best 2 in a half an hour but, if I can't really 3 cross-examine, I'll just -- and especially if we're 4 starting with an ATF agent that lives here in 5 Albuquerque, it's not as if it's that difficult to 6 come back. But I will do my best in a half an 7 hour.

8                   THE COURT: Okay. And I also have to 9 control for the marshal service as well as the 10 government, so let me hear the government's 11 position.

12                  MR. STANFORD: Your Honor, I think I know
13 how this happened in part. I don't think Mr.
14 Gorence entered his appearance until this morning, 15 and so when my motion went into CMCF last night, he 16 wouldn't have gotten it because he hadn't entered 17 as a party.

18                  THE COURT: Actually, he did enter 19 yesterday. I looked at the docket.

20                  MR. STANFORD: Oh, okay. I got his entry 21 just this morning.

22                  THE COURT: Okay.

23                  MR. STANFORD: As far as postponing 24 anything, you know, I definitely respect what the 25 Court is saying, let's make progress as we can. At

1 the same time, the government's position would be 2 that it is best for each party in one sitting if we 3 can. If we could postpone it until Monday, I 4 wonder if we couldn't even get a VTC appearance by 5 my witness who is quarantined on the base. Right 6 now we couldn't have done that today if we tried.
7 But by Monday I suspect -- I know there are 8 mechanisms being evaluated, and, hopefully, maybe 9 will be in place by Monday so we can do most of 10 this by VTC on every hearing, but at least by then 11 I think we stand a much better chance of getting 12 the witness I intend to call by VTC. And I think 13 it's preferable to everybody involved if we could 14 have him by VTC as opposed to just on the phone.

15 So my first preference is I think it's 16 better to do it all in one sitting for both 17 parties, and then the possibility that we could 18 maybe do it by VTC, I think, would be helpful for 19 the Court.

20 MR. GORENCE: And we have no objection on 21 behalf of Mr. Justice to continuing this until 22 Monday, and I believe the face-to-face with your 23 agent would be preferable, and if he needs that 24 time we don't object to a Monday hearing either, 25 Your Honor.

1           THE COURT: I don't know if we have until 2 Monday. When was Mr. Justice arrested?

3           MR. GORENCE: It was Monday. So the fifth 4 day for the government -- or my fifth day would 5 be -- you don't count the first Monday so it would 6 be four days. Monday would be the fifth day.

7           THE COURT: And why are you proposing Monday
8 as opposed to Friday?

9           MR. STANFORD: Well, I mean, Friday I am 10 personally unavailable. It would take a rather 11 moving of mountains to get that arranged. I will 12 do that, but the added benefit is over the weekend 13 I suspect that there will be a surge in 14 availability of VTC for a lot of people. I've 15 heard that most of the federal services were going 16 to VTC for a lot of different things.

17           In fact, a friend of mine who works in D.C.
18 was like, how are your courts not on VTC yet? So I 19 thought maybe we had a chance of getting that 20 arranged. I don't personally know how to do it. I
21 know there's a person here named Scott --

22           THE COURT: I don't -- I don't know that we 23 have the capability to communicate with a video 24 conference on the base.

25           MR. STANFORD: And it may be as simple as

1 getting this airman cleared to do this. I think he 2 may have to ask permission to do this, and we could 3 maybe even set it up with one of our computers and 4 his cell phone. But I don't know how to do that, 5 and I think that a couple of extra days to get 6 that -- you know, if he wants to do it Friday and 7 the Court has to do it Friday, that's fine, but I
8 think I am not great with this technology stuff so 9 a little more time would help me talk to enough 10 people to see if we can figure out a way to do it 11 through VTC. And like I said, it may be as simple 12 as him setting up his own computer. He'll have to 13 have a link to our computers here, but I can't 14 imagine there's not a way to do that. I just don't 15 know what it is.

16 COURT CLERK: We can VTC somebody else on 18 THE COURT: (Inaudible).

19 COURT CLERK: I don't think so.

20 MR. STANFORD: I think, in a worst-case

2 MR. STANFORD: I have minimal confidence, as 3 well. I'm willing to try.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to take a brief
5 recess because I need to -- we have a lot of moving 6 parts with trying to accommodate all of the issues
7 that have come up because of this pandemic, and so 8 before I can grant a request to continue this until 9 Monday I need to check with the court staff to make 10 sure we have -- we don't already have too many 11 hearings scheduled because we're now doing things 12 by VTC.

13 Now, is your client amenable to appearing by 14 VTC for his detention hearing from Cibola? Because 15 that's what we're doing with a lot of the 16 defendants.

17 MR. GORENCE: I'd have to talk to him about 18 that, Your Honor.

1 changes. I mean, we're in a situation where every 2 day is a different set of circumstances. The 3 entire criminal docket in Las Cruces had to be 4 recessed today because one person was showing signs
5 of illness. And so every time that we bring people 6 back and forth, we're potentially exposing inmates.

7 MR. GORENCE: I'm not -- I think that's a
8 great idea. I just need to talk to Mr. Justice.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. GORENCE: But, Your Honor, there is one 11 thing. And I know I'll be able to talk here in 12 some confidence. Could he, from right here, say -- 13 I'd like to spend a couple of minutes where he 14 could at least say hi to his wife and his mother, 15 and then I'll get to the task at hand. Is that 16 acceptable? He's not going to move from here, and 17 they're right there. He just wants to communicate 18 with them.

19 THE COURT: Typically, the marshal service
20 don't allow that.

21 MARSHAL: That's correct, Your Honor.
22 Usually visitation happens at the facility only.

23 THE COURT: Well, there's no visitation
24 right now allowed at the facility.

25 MR. GORENCE: I don't want anything other

2 THE COURT: He's just going to sit there and 4 MR. GORENCE: Yeah, for two minutes.

5 THE COURT: That's fine if he remains in his

7 MR. STANFORD: We'll go outside so that --

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 (A recess was held.)

10 COURT CLERK: All rise. Court is back in 11 session.

12 THE COURT: All right. My preference would 13 be that we take some time for you to review this 14 and we proceed today, partly because this is a 15 constantly developing and evolving situation in our 16 community right now. We have everyone here, and my 17 concern is that if Mr. Justice -- if something 18 happens with transport tomorrow or the next day or 19 somebody gets infected in Cibola, he may be 20 quarantined with the rest of them, and we may not

1 this for Monday, that things are not going to 2 develop that are going to prevent us from having 3 the hearing in person. I believe that, since we 4 have everyone here, we should proceed and we should

9 outside of our control -- I will reschedule it for 10 Monday if that's everybody's will, but I think we 11 should proceed today.

12 MR. GORENCE: Judge, if I can --

13 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

14 MR. GORENCE: -- this case reminds me of the 15 Hudack case in which there could be a very lengthy 16 detention if, in fact, detention was ordered, and I 17 don't think -- my client is still going -- there's 18 a lot of photographs here and a lot of different 19 images, and some of these, including the ones from 21 And what I don't want to do is have

1       rush and there's nothing new to take up on appeal.

2       I don't have a problem --

3           THE COURT: He's entitled to a de novo
4       appeal of the detention ruling.

5           MR. GORENCE: You have to have -- 6       completely, but I'm just saying I would prefer to 7       have really a meaningful hearing because it
8       wouldn't be meaningful yet. I understand I have a 9       half an hour, and we've gone through some things
10      and we've read this. I don't have a problem -- 11      I've talked with Mr. Justice beforehand, and we're 12      prepared for him to appear by video.

13           THE COURT: Okay.

14           MR. GORENCE: That's acceptable. And I 15      think that -- again, I'm not asking for 16      face-to-face as long as he can hear the witnesses 17      and we have that kind of technology if it exists.
18      I just want to make sure that I can actually 19      cross-examine on all of these documents.

20           And Mr. Stanford -- again, he's going to 21      take these home or back to the jail tonight and he, 22      Mr. Justice, has his homework assignment, and I 23      could be ready tomorrow if we set it in the 24      afternoon. Friday the government is not available.
25      I can do this on Monday, as well. So -- and we can

1 also do it by teleconference as long as I can talk
2 to him beforehand, image by image, which we'd 3 paginate.

4 So I want to be accommodating in every way 5 possible given this pandemic, and if there was 6 exceptional circumstances we're not objecting to 7 greater than the five days. I'll put that on the 8 record that the statute was not written with a 9 pandemic in mind. So if, in fact, we -- for good 10 cause and good cause that's determined by the 11 Court, there will not be an issue, and I will put 12 it on the record, that the government's out of time
13 or the Court didn't do this within the five days, 14 so I want to make that part of the record, as well.

15 I just would like to have a meaningful
16 hearing in whatever way possible --

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. GORENCE: -- to accommodate the Court,
19 is what I meant.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So I will continue this 21 until Monday. If -- I can't guarantee that Mr.
22 Justice is going to be able to be transported for 23 an in-person attendance, but if not he will appear 24 by video conference. And I understand that you're

1 require. If, however, we can't hold the hearing on 2 Monday because other things develop, then the Court
3 will make a finding. And, certainly, the statute 4 allows for a continuance beyond the five days if 5 good cause exists. So we'll cross that bridge if 6 we have to.

7 MR. GORENCE: And the only thing I want,
8 Your Honor, is that -- I've been out to Cibola a 9 fair amount. They're not allowing attorneys to go 10 out, as you know.

11 THE COURT: That's right. So there's a 12 process for you to have a teleconference, and if 13 you get with Mark Robert, he'll give you the 14 contact information for the individual who will 15 help you facilitate that on a shorter notice than 16 the typical attorney/client visitation that happens 17 after detention/prelim hearings.

18 MR. GORENCE: And I will reach out to Mr.
19 Robert. We actually were speaking about this 20 yesterday. But if there's something that has to 21 put Mr. Justice at the top of that list by virtue 22 of -- because, otherwise, if I can't -- if I can't 23 have a two-hour phone call with him, then the whole 24 point of the continuance is moot, as well. I just 25 want to make sure that Cibola affords me the

3 THE COURT: Well, he's here. He's here
4 right now, so why don't we -- why don't you take 5 the next hour before you transport him and the rest
6 of the defendants back to Cibola to go through 7 these exhibits right now with him down in the 8 basement.

9 MR. GORENCE: That would be great.

10 THE COURT: And I will continue the 11 hearing -- I'm sorry?

12 MR. STANFORD: I was just going to say, Your 13 Honor, Special Agent Kempton notified me when we 14 stepped into the hallway that he's been advised
15 that Cibola will add VTC capabilities by next week, 16 possibly by Monday.

17 THE COURT: We have VTC capabilities right
18 now. We've already handled a hearing. But that's 19 between the Court and Cibola. I'm not sure that 20 our VTC technology, especially if the defendant has 21 to also appear by VTC, would accommodate a third --

1           THE COURT: My understanding is that the 2 technology has to be able to communicate with each
3 other, and so I don't know what Kirtland's VTC
4 capabilities are. I would suggest to you that you 5 talk to the IT folks here in the courthouse, but we 6 will be proceeding -- unless I am informed by the 7 IT people here that we can bring a third party in, 8 we will be proceeding with your witness who is in 9 quarantine by phone. Do you understand that?

10          MR. STANFORD: I do.

11          THE COURT: Okay.

12          MR. STANFORD: And that's fine with me, but 13 it's really important to me and everybody else -- 14 if it's fine with him, it's fine with me. He's 15 confined to quarters so he can't even go to
